

Questions and responses as/of 1 May 2026

1. Whether this effort is supporting an existing capability or contract, and if so, whether there is an incumbent solution currently in place: This is not to support an existing capability
2. Current cybersecurity tools and platforms in use across endpoint, network, and identity layers: Currently MDE, CISCO Firewall, and Active Directory
3. Approximate scale of users, endpoints, and environments expected to be covered: ~500 users and 500 endpoints which is a mix of Windows, Mac, and Linux operating systems
4. Expected level of integration with existing systems such as endpoint protection, SIEM, and identity services: Microsoft Defender Endpoint and Active Directory
5. Desired operational model, including whether this capability is intended to augment an existing SOC or be delivered as a managed service: Automated with human interaction to ensure
6. Key outcomes or performance improvements the Government is seeking to achieve through this capability: Use AI to protect the command's commercial internet sometimes referred to as "dirty internet"
7. Are FEDRAMP High SaaS solutions an option? Yes, that is an option as long as it can work on our commercial (aka "dirty internet") which is the network that the solution will be used on.