

U.S Department of Veterans Affairs
Military Life Cycle (MLC) Modules
(As of 12/30/2025)

Module Name	Module Overview
VA Education Benefits	Provides information about Defense Department (DOD) and VA education benefits to include Post-9/11 benefits that may help Service members pay for or offset the cost of tuition, housing, books and supplies.
VA Education and Training Benefits for Spouses and Dependents	Communicates relevant information about education benefits, including Post-9/11 benefits, that can help eligible family members and caregivers pay for or offset tuition, housing, books and supplies costs.
VA Benefits 101	Highlights VA benefits and services, to include education, home loan guaranty, health care and insurance, and memorial benefits.
Social and Emotional Health Resources	Describes services and provides information on resources for coping with life experiences and stressors that may impact social and emotional health.
Mental Health for Families	Helps families of Service members and Veterans understand the mental health resources, programs and services available to them and how to access these resources.
VA Home Loan Guaranty Program	Offers a general overview of the VA Home Loan Guaranty Program including eligibility, processes, costs and other available resources.
Reserves and National Guard (New – Launched in September of 2025)	Highlights the benefits and services that may be available for Veterans and transitioning service members of the reserve component and their families.
Vet Centers	Describes how to connect with local Vet Centers and how Service members, Veterans and their loved ones can use Vet Centers as a free resource.
Disability Compensation	Introduces the VA disability compensation benefit that may be available to eligible transitioning Service members and Veterans and shows where to find key resources.

U.S Department of Veterans Affairs
Military Life Cycle (MLC) Modules
(As of 12/30/2025)

VA Life Insurance Benefits	Discusses the different types of VA life insurance benefits to help determine the best choice for Service members and their loved ones based upon interests and needs.
Reserve Component Dual Payments	Provides an overview on drill pay, compensation eligibility, and dual payment.
Survivor and Casualty Assistance Resources	Provides an overview on VA and Department of Defense survivor benefits and eligibility, and what to do in the event of a loss.
Community Integration Resources	Explains how to identify local services and community organizations that can provide assistance and aid to Service members and their loved ones.
Other than Honorable	Provides an overview of VA benefits and services available for former Service members who separated with an Other Than Honorable (OTH) character of discharge.