

Questions/Answers – Technician Coveralls

-Do the shop towels need to be specifically red, or would an alternative color (such as green) be acceptable?

Answer: Shop towels color is not important those were the color to quote vendors had. The material being durable is the bigger factor vs color.

-The SOW outlines initial delivery timelines. Would a 4–6 week delivery timeframe for uniforms be acceptable, assuming no embroidery or special customization is required?

Answer: 4-6 weeks is an acceptable timeframe for delivery.

-The requirement notes 7 sets per technician. Can you confirm if this is sufficient for a standard 5-day workweek, or if uniforms may be worn more than once before laundering?

Answer: 7 sets per technician is the standard number for Vehicle Management coveralls to give us some room for the unexpected.

-Can the Government provide the incumbent contractor and current or most recent contract value? There is no incumbent, this is a new requirement.

-Is the workforce size and uniform quantity expected to remain consistent throughout the contract? The workforce size should remain constant. The expectation is there will be approximately 25 personnel but it will be dependent on persons leaving and coming in to the agency.

-Can an estimated annual personnel turnover rate be provided? Negative, there is no way to project TDY's & PCS's.

-Are contractors responsible for replacing all lost/damaged garments regardless of cause? Negative, contractors will be responsible to replace any lost/damaged garments during transport to/from MacDill. VM personnel will replace lost/damaged(beyond normal wear & tear) garments at the time of turn/contract end.

-Are uniforms exposed to hazardous materials requiring specialized laundering? Uniforms will be exposed to engine oil, transmission fluid, hydro fluid, and mogas/diesel.

-Is there a required garment tracking method? Contractor is responsible to ensure garments are tracked when picking up/delivering.

-Is there any emblem or personalization required on the uniform? 1 name tape on each side of chest. 1 side will be name, and the other side will be 2T3 logo and shop name.

-Will the award be made strictly on a Lowest Price Technically Acceptable basis? Yes

-Who will be providing the name tapes? - The contractor

-Will this be 2 name tapes per person that will be affixed with velcro to the uniform when worn or will this be 2 name tapes per shirt sewn into each of the 7 shirts, totaling 14 name tapes per person? Sewn into the shirts would be best.