

Attachment 3

Delivery Requirement

500 ML Bottles: The Contractor shall provide water in clear or translucent, 500 ml plastic bottles. The bottles shall be individually sealed and shall be stamped with the date of bottling and expiration date. The expiration date shall be at least 180 days after date of delivery. A case is comprised of 24 bottles and shall be assembled and sealed in such a manner as to allow stacking. All bottled water cases shall be palletized and shrink-wrapped when delivered.

1 LTS Bottles: The Contractor shall provide water in clear or translucent, 1 LTS plastic bottles. The bottles shall be individually sealed and shall be stamped with the date of bottling and expiration date. The expiration date shall be at least 180 days after date of delivery. A case is comprised of 12 bottles and shall be assembled and sealed in such a manner as to allow stacking. All bottled water cases shall be palletized and shrink-wrapped when delivered.

1.5 LTS Bottles: The Contractor shall provide water in clear or translucent, 1.5 LTS plastic bottles. The bottles shall be individually sealed and shall be stamped with the date of bottling and expiration date. The expiration date shall be at least 180 days after date of delivery. A case is comprised of 6 bottles and shall be assembled and sealed in such a manner as to allow stacking. All bottled water cases shall be palletized and shrink-wrapped when delivered.

1 Gallon: The Contractor shall provide water in clear or translucent, 1 plastic Gallon. The Gallons shall be individually sealed and shall be stamped with the date of bottling and expiration date. The expiration date shall be at least 180 days after date of delivery. A case is comprised of 4 gallons and shall be assembled and sealed in such a manner as to allow stacking. All gallon water cases shall be palletized and shrink-wrapped when delivered.

5 Gallon Jugs: The Contractor shall provide water in clear or translucent, 5-gallon plastic water jugs. The jugs shall be sealed, and the cap shall be stamped with the date of bottling and expiration date. The expiration date shall be at least 30 days after date of delivery.

Water Quality Standards: In order to be awarded and maintain a contract, under this solicitation notice, offerors must be an approved/accredited supplier of potable water by the US Army Veterinary Command. During the contract, the Contractor must maintain their approval rating. If the Contractor's product is determined to not be following US Army Veterinarian standards, then the contract will be immediately terminated for cause.