RFI Questions & Answers

Access and Escorts: Will the Government provide a dedicated escort for the duration of the 90-day period of performance, or is the contractor expected to maintain independent DBIDS access for all personnel to enter individual rooms? The contractor shall maintain independent DBIDS access for all personnel for the duration of the project. The Government will provide escorts for access to berthing units, contingent upon receiving a formal request at least 48 hours in advance.

2. Access Doors and NADCA Standards: If existing ductwork lacks sufficient access panels to meet NADCA ACR standards, will the installation of new access doors be treated as a government-funded change order, or must the contractor include the cost of all potential new access door installations in the base bid? If existing ductwork has insufficient access, the duct work can be cut and then patched back in using sheet metal of the same gauge, self-tapping sheet metal (teks) screws, water-based mastic seam sealer and or foil seam tape.

3. Mechanical System Status: Can the Government confirm if there have been any modifications to the mechanical systems, AHUs, or FCUs in Buildings 534 and 560 since the previous solicitation for this requirement? The Government has no knowledge of any modifications done to the mechanical system except routine maintenance.

4. Fire Alarm Coordination: Will the Government's Engineering Technician physically perform the technical shutdown and restart of the fire alarm/smoke detection systems, or is the contractor responsible for the technical execution of the bypass? The Engineering Technician will coordinate with the in-house Fire Technicians to perform any shutdowns and restarts of the fire/alarm system.

5. Working in Occupied Spaces: Given that Building 534 houses approximately 230 birthing rooms, what are the Government's "quiet hours" or restricted access windows for performing work within individual rooms? Standard working hours will be 0800-1630 Monday -Friday with the exception if a Government Holiday coincides within period of performance.

6. Will a site visit be scheduled prior to bid deadline, and is it mandatory or optional? Currently there is no site visit planned.
