3. Identification of Statutory Authority Permitting Other Than Full and Open Competition and a Demonstration of the Proposed Contractor's Unique Qualifications to Provide the Required Supply or Services

This justification is approved in accordance with the Revolutionary FAR Overhaul Subpart 8.4 - Ordering under the Federal Supply Schedule, GSAR 538.7104-3(b)(1)(i) sole source statutory exception "The need is of such unusual urgency that following the procedures would result in unacceptable delays in fulfilling that need", as the executive agency's need for the property or services is of such an unusual and compelling urgency that the Federal Government would be seriously injured unless the executive agency is permitted to limit the number of sources from which it solicits bids or proposals.

The MCA system is a [REDACTED], which enables Apprio to customize the system to include a fraud monitoring and detection platform. The MCA claims information is the foundation of outside medical cost analytics. The real-time tracking of all database elements includes fraud alerts and reports highlighting potential fraud/abuse. The Apprio solution provides customized Explanation of Benefits (EOBs) to meet Bureau program needs. The use of analytic (business analytics/business intelligence) tools enables further drill-in, drill-thru capabilities to analyze system data (claims, authorizations, inmates, providers, etc.). The customized result provides medical claims processing and a robust fraud detection system.

The MCA system design is the result of years of testing and learning to understand the Bureau process and technology environment. Apprio has refined the system design to meet the Bureau requirements for a customized claims processing and robust fraud detection program. The MCA hybrid system provides the Bureau with a custom interface allowing BOP systems to transmit and receive information utilizing Amazon Web Services AppStream.

Apprio's custom interface is the only known option available for immediate implementation, providing a complete solution without multiple awards and additional cost within the required time constraints.
