2. Can you provide any feedback on the layout of the zone? As it stands, this contract would support all Troops in the Colorado and Wyoming Zone.

a. Is this feasible? Explain any limitations.

b. Would you need to subcontract any part of the contract? If so, what areas would have to be subcontracted out? For the purposes of this future solicitation, subcontracting refers to the need to contract with a similarly situated vendor in order to support all requirements. What percentage of Fresh Bread and Bakery products are procured from Small Businesses?

3. How can this requirement be modified to encourage vendor participation? Is the proposed length of the contract feasible with commercial practices? Could the length of the contract be longer to include up to 5 years?

4. The following questions relate to our Small Business goals:

- a. Does your company have a corporate responsibility plan? If so please provide with your response.
- b. Describe any efforts your company has made to promote opportunities for small business within your industry.

- c. Detail any barriers to subcontracting opportunities with your business operations or industry. I.e. Labor, required products

- d. Are there any potential business practices or contract mechanisms that may create opportunities for small business subcontracting if incorporated?

5. Are there any other barriers to doing business with DLA Troop Support, not already mentioned?

6. Please provide any additional comments/information about your company that you feel may be beneficial delivering to all the customers listed.

Please e-mail all responses and feedback to Nicole Blake, Nicole.Blake@DLA.Mil, Jennifer DeLange, Jennifer.DeLange@DLA.Mil, by June 08, 2026 at 7:00 PM Eastern Standard Time.
