[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] supports Pre-launch tests. This hardware is used for the [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED]. RF equipment manufactured by Pasternack are required and integrated into all [REDACTED] Builds. All RF loss calculations and internal cable lengths are based on the Pasternack RF form factor and specifications. The material must be compatible in all aspects (form, fit and function) with existing systems presently installed. Changing to different hardware would result in a duplication of effort and cost to the programs estimated in excess of [REDACTED] for six (6) months of personnel hours for research and procurement of additional hardware, installation of, and familiarization and training on the new hardware. This additional cost could not be recovered through full and open competition and would cause delays that would jeopardize the current testing schedule.

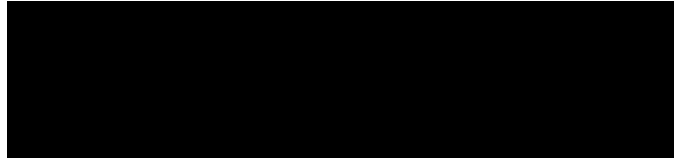

3. Market research was performed and has shown that no other manufacturer can provide RF components to meet the above capabilities within the form factor restrictions of operation inside the [REDACTED] in tandem with current [REDACTED] RF equipment. Pasternack Inc. provides the only components that can support the physical design and specifications needed for [REDACTED] builds. Pasternack Inc. is the Original Equipment Manufacturer and these components are direct replacements for Isolators in the current [REDACTED] builds. Market research shown there are multiple authorized resellers available,
