CONTINUATION PAGE

The purpose of this amendment is to provide the questions and answers to the solicitation.

1. Q: Could you please provide the following details:
 - a. Current or most recent incumbent contractor name
 - b. Contract number and/or prior solicitation number
 - c. Contract value or pricing structure (or estimated range, if available)
 - d. Period of performance for the incumbent contract
 - e. Any relevant historical procurement information that may assist offerors in understanding the scope continuity

A: There is not a current contract in place. This is a new requirement.

2. Q: While reviewing the solicitation requirements, I noted a potential discrepancy regarding when proof of insurance must be provided:

- Section 6.1.1 (Reports/Deliverables table): Indicates that "Proof of Indemnification and Medical Liability Insurance" should be submitted "Upon proposal" to the Contracting Officer.

- Section C.10 (Supplemental Insurance Requirements): States that the successful bidder must present evidence of general liability insurance "prior to award".

Could you please clarify if proof of insurance is required to be included within the initial proposal package? If it is required with the proposal, should it be included in Volume 1 (Technical) or Volume 3 (Price)?

A: Submit proof within the quote provided and within Volume 1 (Technical).
