Evaluation-Commercial Products and Commercial Services (Feb 2026) (Deviation 2026-O0038)

(a) Evaluation factors. The Government will award a contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible Offeror whose offer conforming to the solicitation will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered. The following factors will be used to evaluate offers:

Price

Technical

Past Performance

(b) Options (if applicable). The Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. The Government may determine that an offer is unacceptable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced. The evaluation of options does not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).

(c) Notice of award. A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer furnished to the successful Offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.

EVALUATION FACTORS FOR AWARD

BASIS OF AWARD

Award will be made based on price and other factors as shown below. All pricing must be provided for, this requirement will not be split. If something left blank, quote will not be considered.

Other factors - Each factor below will be evaluated as Acceptable or Unacceptable:

1. Technical Submission: The offeror's technical submission must demonstrate a clear understanding of the Statement of Work (SOW) and a sound approach to meeting its requirements. The submission must address all requirements of the SOW to be considered acceptable. A general statement of compliance or restatement of the requirement will be considered unacceptable.
2. Past Performance: The Government will evaluate past performance in accordance with RFO 12.203. The Government may review data available in the Contractor Performance Assessment Reporting System (CPARS) and other sources to assess the quality of an offeror's performance on recent and relevant contracts. Past performance may be considered acceptable if the performance is recent to within the last three years of the date of the solicitation and relevant in relation to the size and scope of the SOW and estimated quantities of the requirements listed in B 01 - Pricing Worksheet. An offeror with no relevant past performance history will receive a "Neutral" rating. An offeror's past performance may be considered unacceptable if performance is outside the three year window or the past performance is not relevant to the scope of the tasks and estimated quantities of the requirement.

The agency will first evaluate price and then evaluate the apparent lowest-price proposal for acceptability under the two factors listed above. Both technical and past performance factors must be considered acceptable for award to be made. If the lowest-price offeror is evaluated as unacceptable with their technical submission and past performance., the agency will then consider the acceptability of the next lowest price offer, continuing this process as necessary. This is being awarded using Revolutionary FAR Overhaul (RFO) FAR 12 and is considered commercial IAW FAR 12.

FAR 52.217-8 OPTION - Contracting Officers, when evaluating proposals for contract award, as part of the price evaluation, will evaluate the Option to Extend Services under FAR clause 52.217-8 by adding one-half of the vendor's final ordering period price to the vendor's final ordering period price to the vendor's total price. The final award evaluation will include the base year, all ordering periods, and the six-month FAR 52.217-8 clause option. The FAR 52.217-8 clause is usable at periods throughout the life of the contract (i.e., after the basic period, after the end of any of the ordering periods) but not to exceed 6 months for the total life of the contract.
