Performance of a service will be evaluated to determine whether or not it meets the Performance Threshold (PT) of the contract. 4.1.1. The Government will periodically evaluate the contractor's performance by appointing a representative(s) to monitor performance to ensure services are received. The government representative will evaluate the contractor's performance through inspections of reports and contractor services documentation. The Government may inspect each task as completed or increase the number of quality assurance inspections if deemed appropriate because of repeated failures or because of repeated customer complaints. Likewise, the Government may decrease the number of quality assurance inspections if performance dictates.

4.1.2. If any of the services do not conform to contract requirements, the Government may:

- Require the contractor to take necessary action to ensure that future performance conforms to contract requirements; and

The COR shall inspect by watching actual task performance, physically checking an attribute of the completed task, checking management information reports, investigating customer complaints, conferring with facility managers, or otherwise inspecting the task or its results to determine whether or not performance meets the standards contained in this PWS. The COR will record surveillance results. Results of the surveillance then become the official Air Force record of the contractor's performance. When a performance threshold has not been met or contractor performance has not been accomplished, the COR will initiate a Corrective Action Report (CAR) or Performance Assessment Report (PAR) and provide the Contracting Officer a Contract Discrepancy Report (CDR) for issuance to the contractor. Any unsatisfactory inspection (defect) result shall be recorded, and the contractor shall re-perform the service after notification by the COR.

The COR will verify the complaint and notify the contractor of valid complaints. The contractor shall acknowledge the complaint within 2 hours and inform the COR of his recommendation. Any deficiency shall be documented, and the contractor shall re-perform service immediately, if appropriate, or within 24 hours at no increase in contract amount. The following issues shall be discussed: observed positive performance and steps taken by the contractor to prevent unsatisfactory performance, any modifications required of the contract, opportunities to improve performance, unsatisfactory inspections and trends against each performance objective.

The minutes of these meetings will be reduced to writing, signed by the Contracting Officer and any other signatures as deemed appropriate, and distributed to the functional area and the contractor.
