Limited Sources Justification and Approval (J&A)

I. Contracting Activity.

45 CONS/PKD
 1201 Edward H. White II Street
 Patrick Space Force Base FL 32925
 Iris Dagani, Contracting Officer (DSN [REDACTED] - [REDACTED])

II. Nature and/or description of the action being processed.

Brand Name Justification for the purchase of ZScaler software licenses and support. Support will cover a 12 month period from 5/1/26 - 4/30/27. Coverage is required to provide access to the latest software updates and manufacturer support.

These additional 2,000 licenses will support user access to Nebula for multiple applications in development, ready for testing by end users, and eventual entry in to the production environment.

This firm fixed priced requirement will be acquired via Department of Defense (DoD) Enterprise Software Initiative (ESI) in accordance with R-DFARS 208.7402 and DAFMAN 17-1203 for the purchase of commercial software licenses using Fiscal Year (FY) 2026, 3620 funds.

Blanket Purchase Agreement N6600119A0120 with Carahsoft
 Effective Date 09/06/2019
 Expiration Date 07/14/2029
 Based on their GSA Schedule 70 IT contract 47QSWA18D008F

IV. Identification of the justification/rationale for limiting sources and demonstration of the contractor's unique qualifications to provide the required supply/service.

In accordance with RFO 8.401(a) and GSAR 538.7104-3(b), Items peculiar to one manufacturer. A brand name item, whether available on one or more schedule contracts, is an item peculiar to one manufacturer.

Zscaler's Private Access (ZPA) provides Zero Trust Network Access (ZTNA) without reliance on Virtual Private Networks (VPNs) that tend to be complex and costly. This will surmount the current launch mission's cybersecurity capabilities by decades. Additionally, Zscaler provides a streamlined set and maintenance process for remote users, not commonly found elsewhere. The use of this software will significantly diminish the number of engineering hours required for operational tasks and result in a low degree of effort and low level of manpower for support, saving schedule and costs in the long term.

Limited Sources Justification and Approval (J&A)

V. Determination by the ordering activity Contracting Officer that the order represents the best value consistent with FAR 8.404(d).

In accordance with R-DFARS 208.470(d), "the ordering activity contracting officer is responsible for making a determination of fair and reasonable pricing for individual orders, blanket purchase agreements (BPA), and orders under BPAs, using the proposal analysis techniques at 15.404-1."

As the DoD ESI BPA issued to Carahsoft under N6600119A0120 is based on their GSA Schedule 70 IT contract 47QSWA18D008F, it identifies a minimum additional discount to the pre-negotiated GSA rates. Additionally, there are 5 authorized resellers/dealers available to submit offers under the terms of this ESI BPA and all offerors will be given fair opportunity to bid.

VI. Description of the market research conducted and the results, or explain why market research was not conducted.

In accordance with R-DFARS 208.7402(a) Departments and agencies shall fulfill requirements for commercial software and commercial software services, such as software maintenance, in accordance with the DoD Enterprise Software Initiative (ESI) (see <https://www.esi.mil/>).

While ESI does not dictate what products or services to be acquired, market research and surveys of other Government users led to the decision to utilize Zscaler software.

VII. Other facts supporting the justification.

None

VIII. Actions the agency may take to remove or overcome any barriers that led to the restricted consideration before any subsequent acquisition for the supplies or services.

Reviews of the current marketplace are ongoing. As other software and/or solutions are developed, they will be considered by the agency prior to any future purchases of this software.

IX. Certification by the Contracting Officer.

As evidenced by my signature above, I have determined this document to be both accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

X. Certification by the technical/requirements personnel.

As evidenced by my signature above, I certify that any supporting data contained herein, which is my responsibility, is both accurate and complete.
