EXPORT CONTROLLED TECHNICAL DATA

Export of the attached information (which includes, in some circumstances, release to foreign nationals within the United States) without first obtaining approval or license from the Department of State for items controlled by the International Traffic in Arms Regulation (ITAR) or the Department of Commerce for items controlled by the Export Administration Regulation (EAR), may constitute a violation of the law.

Under 22 U.S.C. 2778, the penalty for unlawful export of items or information controlled under the ITAR is up to 2 years imprisonment, or a fine of $100,000, or both. Under 50 U.S.C., appendix 2410, the penalty for unlawful export of items or information controlled under the EAR is a fine of up to $100,000, or five times the value of the exports, whichever is great; or for an individual, imprisonment of up to 10 year, or a fine of up to $250,000, or both.

In accordance with the certification that establishes you as a "qualified U.S. contractor", unauthorized dissemination of this information is prohibited and may result in your disqualification as a qualified U.S. contractor, and may be considered in determining your eligibility for future contracts with the Department of Defense.

The U.S. Government assumes no liability for direct patent infringement, or contributory patent infringement, or misuse of technical data.

The U.S. Government does not warrant the adequacy, accuracy, currency, or completeness of the technical data.

The U.S. Government assumes no liability for loss, damage, or injuries resulting from manufacture or use for any purpose of any product, article, system, or material involving reliance upon any or all technical data furnished in response to the request for technical data.

If the technical data furnished by the Government will be used for commercial manufacturing or other profit potential, a license for such use may be necessary. Any payments made in support of the request for data do not include or involve any license rights.

Include a copy of this notice with any partial or complete reproduction of these data that provided to qualified U.S. Contractors.
