Question 2: Can the government clarify whether a technical proposal and past performance is required for evaluation?

Answer 2: Refer to Solicitation 52.212-2 ADDENDUM

Addendum to Evaluation – Commercial Products and Commercial Services

- (a) The Government will award a purchase order resulting from this solicitation to the responsive, responsible offeror able to meet the requirements of the solicitation and Performance Work Statement, with the lowest total aggregate price. Although the Government intends to award without discussions, if the price cannot be determined fair and reasonable, negotiations may commence. The Government reserves the right to seek additional information to determine price fair and reasonableness.
- (b) The Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. The Government may determine that an offer is unacceptable if the option prices are significantly unbalanced. Evaluation of options shall not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s). The Past Performance Information Retrieval System, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, as well any other Government-sponsored information available, may be utilized to help make a responsibility determination in accordance with FAR 9.104.
- (c) Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.
