Solicitation 31140PR260000016 Questions and Responses

Question or Comment Number	Question/Comment	USCG Response
1	According to the solicitation instructions, a technical capability statement with no more than 5 pages is required. Can this be done on company stationary?	Yes, this technical capability statement can be on company letterhead. The solicitation contains the information required for a quote to be found technical acceptable. Please note that solicitation amendment #1 does revise the evaluation criteria.
2	Do you require portable toilets with or without sinks	The government will be providing ALL portable toilets referenced in this solicitation. The contractor shall only be responsible for maintenance and servicing. The Statement of Work has been revised to clarify this requirement.
3	Are you looking for the contractor to provide the portable toilets for the duration of this contract?	The government will be providing ALL portable toilets referenced in this solicitation. The contractor shall only be responsible for maintenance and servicing. The Statement of Work has been revised to clarify this requirement.
4	How will payment be made?	Payment will be made via the Invoice Processing Platform (IPP).
5	Can we bill monthly or do we have to wait until the contract is over to invoice?	Contract may bill monthly for services provided.
6	Is this a new contract?	This is a new contract for these services for the period of performance of 15 May 2026 - 30 October 2026, with potential on-call services needed until 30 Nov
7	Can the due date for quotes be extended?	The due date for quotes will be extended to 13 May 2026 at 1:00 p.m.
8	In the description, it says to be serviced every 14 days. If it needs to be serviced sooner will the contractor be called?	If off-cycle servicing is required, the government will contact the vendor directly.
9	Does the evidence of environmentally compliant disposal of waste need to be something official from the State of Alaska or City of Kodiak?	The government will accept informal documentation from the contractor reflecting that the waste is disposed of in an environmentally compliant manner. We need to ensure that waste is not simply "dumped" on public or private property.
