Reason for Authority Cited:

Limiting the number of suppliers helps ensure the system's security. The BEST 1E-74 Mortise Cylinder Housing is the only product available that is compatible with the BEST 7-pin L-type keyway that Youngstown ARS currently utilizes.
 - (c) Impact: If the J&A is not approved this would jeopardize security for the entire installation. It will result in a locking system installed in this project that are not approved by the base and will not be compatible with the keys and cores that the base currently has. This will result in the base having to spend additional time and money, post construction, converting these locking systems to the approved systems.
5. Efforts to Obtain Competition: Technical capabilities of various manufacturers were reviewed for compatibility to the current system. None of the various manufacturers' equipment are compatible with the existing system which currently utilizes BEST systems exclusively.
